Docket #: 07CV3636 (LAK)

AMENDED COMPLAINT (JURY TRIAL REQUESTED)

Plaintiff, YANG FANG ZHAO ("ZHAO") complaining of the defendants CITY OF NEW YORK ("CITY"), DETECTIVE NGA CHEUNG NG ("NG"), DETECTIVE BILLY MILAN ("MILAN"), SGT. BRIAN CONLON ("CONLON"), and "JOHN DOE #2" (collectively "DEFENDANTS") herein, by and through his attorneys SIEGLE & SIMS L.L.P., alleges the following upon information and belief:

INTRODUCTION

1. On or about December 11, 2001, inside the Golden Box Karaoke Club, 40-52 Main Street, Flushing, New York, Danny Cabezas, the doorman/bouncer at the location, was stabbed to death by an unknown third person. ZHAO was a patron of the club that night.

2. On the night of said murder, the matter was investigated by members of the New York City Police Department who definitively established that ZHAO was located in a different part of the club at the time of the murder and could not have been responsible for the crime.

3. Despite this information, with little or no further investigation conducted by DEFENDANTS into the murder of Danny Cabezas, almost four years after said murder, with intentional and/or in reckless disregard for the truth, on October 24, 2005, plaintiff ZHAO was falsely arrested and imprisoned, maliciously prosecuted, assaulted, battered, interrogated and unlawfully searched, by DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees in violation of ZHAO's rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, United States Code, Title 42, § 1983 and Article 1, §12, and Article 2, § 8 of the Constitution of the State of New York.

4. Upon his arrest, in an effort to obtain a confession, DEFENDANTS threatened, assaulted, battered, intentionally inflicted emotional distress and/or otherwise negligently inflicted emotional distress on ZHAO, causing ZHAO to sign a false confession written by NG, which DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees knew or should have known was false and of no merit.

5. Subsequently, ZHAO was maligned, defamed, libeled, and slandered, by DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees who published that ZHAO had confessed to a murder which DEFENDANTS' knew or should have known he did not commit, with intent to injure ZHAO and deceive the public, in reckless disregard of the truth.

6. As a result of DEFENDANTS' conduct, ZHAO was incarcerated for approximately eleven months and prosecuted for the murder of Danny Cabezas. At the insistence of ZHAO's counsel, the Queens County District Attorney's Office conducted a post-arrest, post-indictment investigation of ZHAO's claims of innocence. Upon completion of said investigation, ZHAO was released from custody and the indictment pending against him was dismissed with prejudice.

7. By this action ZHAO seeks to recover monetary damages, including attorneys fees, caused by the intentional and/or negligent acts and omissions of the DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees.

FACTS

17. On or about December 11, 2001, ZHAO was a patron of the Golden Box Karaoke club located at 40-52 Main Street, Flushing, New York.

18. On or about December 11, 2001, Danny Cabezas was employed by and working at the Golden Box Karaoke club as a bouncer/doorman.

19. On or about December 11, 2001, at approximately 2:10 a.m., inside the Golden Box Karaoke Club, Danny Cabezas was stabbed to death by an unknown third person in the area of the second floor doorway entrance to the club.

20. At the time of the stabbing, ZHAO was in another part of the club and could not have committed the murder.

21. After being stabbed in the entrance area, Danny Cabezas stood against a wall, clutched his chest, and then stumbled to the main hallway of the club, where he collapsed and fell to the floor.

22. At approximately the same time as Danny Cabezas fell, ZHAO walked passed him while heading toward the exit.

23. Shortly after the stabbing, numerous members of the New York City Police Department arrived at the Golden Box Karaoke Club and began conducting an investigation into the stabbing of Danny Cabezas.

24. As part of its investigation, on or about December 11, 2001, several witnesses to the murder were interviewed by DEFENDANTS, including the two managers from the location.

25. On December 11, 2001, at approximately 4:10 a.m., Yun Chen, a waitress working that night at the Golden Box, was interviewed by defendant NG.

26. Ms. Chen informed defendant NG that at approximately 2:00 a.m. there was a fight in the club. The fight was between Danny Cabezas and the patrons of room 6. George and Peter helped to break up the fight. A few minutes later Danny escorted the customers to the stair area to show them out. Ms. Chen then went into room 6, to make sure things inside the room were alright. After a brief time she exited room 6 and walked back toward the entrance/exit of the club. As she walked near room 8, she saw Danny walking back from the stairway area. Danny was holding his chest and was bleeding from the stomach area. Danny then fell down slowly to the floor in front of room 9.

27. On or about December 11, 2001, at approximately 4:00 a.m., another waitress employed by the Golden Box, Yuhua Huang, was interviewed by another detective from the New York City Police Department, Richard Maline.

28. Ms. Huang informed Detective Maline that she stopped working at approximately 2:00 a.m., at which time she went into room 9 to read a book. She heard some yelling and looked out of the room but saw nothing. After a few minutes she got up to leave the room. When she exited the room she did not see anyone. Then she went and stood by the bathroom and saw several people walking down the stairs to leave. She then saw Danny walk passed her holding his chest. He took a few steps passed her and then fell to the floor. When Danny fell to the floor she called 9-1-1.

29. On or about December 11, 2001, at approximately 3:55 a.m., Peter Yee, the Assistant Manager of the Golden Box, was interviewed by Detective Sergio Rivera.

30. Mr. Yee informed Detective Rivera that Danny Cabezas was a part-time doorman and bouncer for the Golden Box. He stated that he was present in the Golden Box that night and Danny was working. During the night, while he and the manager of the Golden Box, George Huang, were inside room 5 playing cards, he heard Danny arguing with a couple of Asian males, then he heard the walls banging. At that time he and the manager, George Huang, ran out of the room and saw Danny fighting with approximately six Asian men. George and Peter helped break up the fight and instructed Danny to walk away and let the guys leave. Danny walked to the end of the hallway and was met at the doorway by a group of male Asians who attacked Danny. Peter ran over to break up the fight. The male Asians were kicking and punching Danny. Peter saw a male Asian with long hair, wearing a white ski jacket leap over and hit Danny, possibly stabbing him in the chest. After breaking up the second fight, Peter saw Danny walking away holding his chest and then fell down to the ground in front of room 9, at which time he saw that Danny's hands were full of blood. Peter further advised that most of the Asian males fighting with Danny are on the videotapes which were supplied to the New York City Police Department that night.

31. On or about December 11, 2001, at approximately 3:37 a.m., Detective C. Wilkinson interviewed George Huang, who identified himself as the manger of the Golden Box.

32. Mr. Huang informed Detective Wilkinson that the person who was stabbed was a part time security person named Danny. He further stated that immediately prior to the stabbing, he was talking with a friend down the hall in one of the rooms when he heard a noise coming from down the hall. He came out from the room he was in and saw male and female Chinese patrons, who were previously using room 6, fighting with Danny. He went down the hall and broke up the fight. The people involved in the fight then started leaving. Two of the male patrons were looking for their shoes while the other patrons were being led out by Danny. Shortly thereafter, Danny came back holding his chest and bleeding. While walking back, Danny fell in front of room 9, falling slowly to the floor holding his chest. The two guys that were with the group initially fighting with Danny, the ones that had been looking for shoes, then just left. They had nothing in their hands.

33. As witnessed by George Huang and depicted in the videotapes provided to the New York City Police Department that night, ZHAO was one of the two men that were getting their shoes at the time that Danny was stabbed.

34. On or about December 11, 2001, four videotapes containing various images of the activities at the Golden Box Karaoke club, before, during, and after the murder, including, but not limited to, images of the two fights that immediately preceded the murder, and images showing portions of the actual stabbing itself, were turned over to DEFENDANTS.

35. The statements of all the witnesses, taken by the police on December 11, 2001, immediately after the stabbing, are consistent with each other.

36. The statements taken that day are corroborated by the content of the four surveillance videotapes of the Golden Box provided to the New York City Police Department on December 11, 2001.

37. Despite obtaining this information from the witnesses and obtaining four videotapes from the owners of the Golden Box, which depict portions of the murder and the events surrounding same, on October 24, 2005, ZHAO was arrested for the murder of Danny Cabezas.

38. Based upon the witness statements of December 11, 2001, and the videotapes, no probable cause existed to arrest ZHAO for the murder of Danny Cabezas.

39. Based upon the witness statements and videotapes of December 11, 2001, ZHAO could not have committed the murder.

40. On or about October 24, 2005, in the vicinity of Grand Street and Hester Street, in the County and State of New York, DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees, without probable cause that ZHAO committed any crime, and under color of statute, placed plaintiff ZHAO under arrest by pointing firearms, frisking, handcuffing, searching, and placing ZHAO into a police vehicle.

41. From the night of the murder, December 11, 2001, until the time of ZHAO's arrest, October 24, 2005, a period of almost four years, DEFENDANTS failed to properly investigate the stabbing death of Danny Cabezas and obtained no information contradicting the witness statements or videotape depictions of December 11, 2001, and had no basis whatsoever to arrest

ZHAO.

42. Thereafter, on October 24, 2005, DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees, under color of law, transported ZHAO to a New York City Police Department precinct in Manhattan and interrogated ZHAO regarding the murder of Danny Cabezas.

43. After denying any involvement in the murder of Danny Cabezas, DEFENDANTS transported ZHAO to the Office of the New York County District Attorney, where the interrogation of ZHAO was continued.

44. ZHAO continued to assert that he had nothing to do with the murder of Danny Cabezas.

45. Next, DEFENDANTS transported ZHAO to the New York City Police Department 112th Precinct, located in Queens, New York.

46. While at the 112th Police Precinct, DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees, acting under color of law, assaulted, battered, tortured, terrorized, and threatened ZHAO, and through the use and infliction of unconstitutionally impermissible tactics and measures and through the employment of unlawful physical force and psychological intimidation, coerced and forced ZHAO to sign a false written statement drafted by DEFENDANTS, which contained an admission that he had stabbed Danny Cabezas on December 11, 2001 at Golden Box Karaoke club.

47. DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees, by the employment of such tactics, knew that ZHAO did not voluntarily sign the statement drafted by them.

48. DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees, knew or should have known that the statement they prepared and forced ZHAO to sign was false.

49. Prior to arresting ZHAO on October 24, 2005, DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees, failed to examine the witness statements and videotapes, which, taken together, showed ZHAO could not have stabbed Danny Cabezas.

50. DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees, failed to re-interview the witnesses who gave statements the morning of the murder prior to arresting ZHAO on October 24, 2005.

51. None of the witnesses to the stabbing or the events of December 11, 2001, ever implicated ZHAO in the murder of Danny Cabezas.

52. DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees, prior to the arrest of ZHAO, possessed actual evidence of ZHAO's innocence and improperly and unlawfully acted with disregard for same.

53. Additionally, DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees, possessed information from other members of law enforcement, including the Federal Bureau of Investigation, of the name, with a description, of the person who stabbed Danny Cabezas to death.

54. This additional information, including the name and description of said person, was not of ZHAO.

55. This additional information further corroborated the witness statements obtained on the night of December 12, 2001, and fit the description of the person who appears on the videotapes, who initially instigated the fight with Danny Cabezas, who is standing around in a taunting and threatening manner after the initial altercation, and who is seen wildly swinging an object in his hand from over his head in a downward motion during the second altercation during which Danny Cabezas was stabbed. This person is also seen in the videotapes folding an object, placing it in his waistband and hastily fleeing the scene of the murder. This physical description of the real perpetrator also matches that of Peter Yee, who witnessed the stabbing, provided on the night of the incident.

56. DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees, failed to examine or otherwise further investigate the above statements prior to arresting ZHAO on October 24, 2005.

57. On or about October 25, 2006, DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees, under color of law, caused a criminal court complaint to be filed in the Criminal Court of the City of New York, County of Queens, against plaintiff ZHAO charging him with Murder in the Second Degree, and which contained an allegation that ZHAO caused and admitted stabbing Danny Cabezas, thereby causing his death.

58. As a result of the DEFENDANTS conduct in causing the filing of the criminal court complaint, ZHAO was incarcerated on October 25, 2005, and held without bail for a period of almost one year.

59. Thereafter, DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees, knowingly testified in a false and misleading manner before a grand jury sitting in Queens County, including testimony concerning the confession, which they knew or should have known was not truthful, nor voluntarily made by ZHAO.

60. As a result of the intentionally false and misleading testimony of the DEFENDANTS, their agents, servants and/or employees, the grand jury of the County of Queens filed an indictment charging ZHAO with two counts of Murder in the Second Degree and one count of Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Fourth Degree.

61. ZHAO was incarcerated from October 24, 2005, until September 22, 2006, when, upon the motion of the District Attorney for the County of Queens, he was released on his own recognizance.

62. On December 18, 2006, the indictment charging ZHAO with Murder in the Second Degree and other charges was dismissed upon the motion of the District Attorney for the County of Queens.

63. As a result of DEFENDANTS' wrongful conduct ZHAO was incarcerated for a total of 334 days.

CUSTOMS AND PRACTICES OF DEFENDANT CITY OF NEW YORK WHICH LED TO THE WRONGFUL AND MALICIOUS ARREST, IMPRISONMENT PROSECUTION AND VICTIMIZATION OF ZHAO

64. The defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has a number of customs and practices which are employed by the New York City Police Department which caused and /or contributed to ZHAO's false arrest and imprisonment, his malicious prosecution, and the assault and battery committed against him as part of his unlawful interrogation and search.

65. Specifically, it is the custom and/or practice of defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants and/or employees, to routinely seize individuals, suspected of some type of criminality or possibly the witnesses to criminality, without sufficient and legal probable cause, effectively "arresting" them.

66. Additionally, it is the custom and/or practice of the defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants and/or employees, subsequent to the arrests and seizures of individuals, which arrests lack probable cause, through the employment of unlawful and unconstitutional physical harm and intimidation, and psychological abuse, to interrogate and seek to elicit confessions ("false confessions") in violation of the rights of all people guaranteed by the Constitutions of the United States and State of New York.

67. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants and/or employees, including employees of the New York City Police Department, due to a lack of training and supervision, fail to train and/or improperly train their employees in recognizing probable cause sufficient to seize an individual suspected of a crime or a witness to a crime.

68. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants and/or employees, including employees of the New York City Police Department, due to a lack of proper training and supervision, routinely engage in a custom or practice of making arrests without sufficient and legal probable cause.

69. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants and/or employees, including employees of the New York City Police Department, due to a lack of proper training and supervision, are taught to employ unlawful and unconstitutional physical harm, intimidation, threats, coercion, force, and psychological abuse, to elicit confessions in violation of individuals' Constitutional rights in criminal cases.

70. The employment of the techniques taught by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, specifically the New York City Police Department, have been shown, over time, to produce unworthy, specious, incredible and false confessions.

71. Confirmed examples of false confessions routinely elicited by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants and/or employees, include: People v. Antron McCray, 1989, People v. Kevin Richardson, 1989, People v. Yusef Salaam, 1989, People v. Raymond Santana, 1989, People v. Bently Louis Grant, 2000, People v. Jason Ligon, 1999.

72. Additionally, it was the custom or practice of defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants and/or employees, specifically the New York City Police Department, to fail to properly resume, continue and/or re-investigate "cold cases;" criminal matters which have remained unsolved and/or not closed for a lengthy period of time.

73. Moreover, the defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants and/or employees, specifically the New York City Police Department, failed to properly train and/or supervise its agents, servants and/or employees, in the resumption, continuation, and/or re-investigation of such “cold cases.”

74. As a result of such lack of training and supervision, it was the custom or practice of defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants and/or employees, to fail to properly investigate “cold cases” by failing to review evidence previously amassed, failing to locate and re-interview witnesses to the crime, and failing to exercise due care and prudence in a full and complete investigation of a “cold case.”

75. As a result of the custom or practice of defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants and/or employees, in failing to properly investigate “cold cases,” individuals are frequently subjected to a violation of their Constitutional rights, including wrongful arrest and imprisonment.

76. As a result of the defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants and/or employees, failure to properly train and/or supervise its agents, servants and/or employees in the proper investigation of “cold cases,” ZHAO’s Constitutional rights were violated by, among other things, his wrongful arrest and imprisonment.
